

Questions to ask at Vendor Meetings Videographer

Capturing the ceremony and important reception events will give you real time memories from your big day. You will get to relive the toasts, seeing grandma dancing at the wedding, seeing his face as you walk down the aisle, and so much more.

- How long have you been in business?
- How many weddings have you shot video for?
- What are your wedding packages and pricing?
- What type of deposit is required and what is the schedule of payments?
- Will you reserve my wedding date until we finish interviewing videographers?
- What type of equipment do you use?
- What is the backup plan if your camera fails?
- If you offer unlimited coverage, how long are you usually at the event?
- What is the length of the video we will receive?
- Do you create a highlight video?
- Will the video be posted online?
- Who, specifically, will video the wedding?
- Do you shoot in standard definition or high definition?
- What is the cost for extra copies of the DVD?
- How many cameras will be used?
- Will you have an assistant at the wedding?
- What do you use for music in the final video?
- What kind of lighting do you use at night?
- Will we get to see any footage prior to receiving the final video?
- How long after the event will we receive the final video?
- Where will be camera(s) be during the ceremony?
- Will you check with the church for video and lighting rules (if applicable)?
- Can we watch highlight and full length videos you have produced?
